Syro-Malabar Parish Celebration last Sunday 21st July. Many thanks indeed to Fr. Jom and to all those in the Syro-Malabar Community who did such a wonderful job in all the preparations before and on the day and in tidying up afterwards. What a wonderful day of celebrations it was: starting with the Procession and Holy Mass and followed by an evening of speeches, prize-giving, devotional Indian dances and shared food. Well done to all those who won the prizes in the catechesis classes. Congratulations to the two couples celebrating wedding anniversaries. Thank you to all who came and supported the event. A special thank you to Sr. Elizabeth whose time and work made this possible. May God continue to bless his Church present in the Syro-Malabar Community here.

Sorry we cannot accept any donations of second-hand clothes, bedding, rags, furniture, large items (please take these to a charity shop instead) nor any out-of-date food, etc. Many thanks in advance. God Bless.

For Confirmation your child must be in school year 6 or above. Deacon Peter is only able to take Confirmation classes for a maximum of 12 young people and their parents. Second Collections: 14th/15th August "Friends of the Holy Land" despite the huge difficulties and with Bethlehem virtually deserted there is no money from tourism; your donations will go to fund local projects for youth, churches and of course to provide much needed food and water to families.
14th/15th September "Evangelii Gaudium (joy of the Gospel)" donations go to the Catholic Bishops of England & Wales Trust to support them in their evangelical works.
Last weekend's 2nd Collection of £349-78 has been sent to the Stella Maris Charity. Thank you.

Many thanks for all your kindness and generosity in the Offertory and Second Collections.
